

-Consider your MSD project and identify three possible elements to which you might apply Intellectual Property protection. For each element you have envisioned, identify the form of protection you might apply.

- Design – Patent
- Manufacturing process – patent
- Assembly of unit – patent

- Consider how you envision handling IP within your team. For example, leave it in the public domain, pursue protection, assign to client, etc.

- Leave in public domain for now unless product gets more client specific