

Allison Morgan

MSD I: P21068

1/27/2021

Use Case Scenarios

A student with limited abilities joins an art class and will participate using the robotic art drawing assist device with a physical interface, such as a keyboard, as opposed to an eye-gaze interface. The student will have a caregiver to assist with any physical setup and use of the device. Finally, the student will successfully participate and draw alongside the teacher.

