

Withdrawal Attendance Concern to Student

From: sxbrla@rit.edu

Reply To: sxbrla@rit.edu

Subject: Academic Alert for Student Name in Class Name

When you send an alert to a student, the system will generate a standardized email directly to the student from your email address.

The student's name, and the name of the course are auto-populated in the email.

Dear Student,

This message was generated because you have withdrawn from Class Name, and will receive a final grade of "W".

A course withdrawal may have an impact on your academic plan as well as financial aid (if you are a recipient). If you did not consult your primary academic advisor and financial aid counselor prior to withdrawing from this course, you should check in with them immediately to discuss any impact this course withdrawal may have on your time to degree, financial aid standing, and/or course registration for the upcoming term.

The academic alert system is made available to students, advisors, and instructors through the division of Academic Affairs. It is designed to help you succeed at RIT by connecting you with support and resources. If you have questions about the Starfish system, please contact us at starfish@rit.edu

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTE: The information transmitted, including attachments, is intended only for the person(s) or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or privileged material. Any review, retransmission, dissemination or other use of, or taking of any action in reliance upon this information by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you received this in error, please contact the sender and destroy any copies of this information.